LEMON CHIFFON CAKE

Ingredients:

Base:

140 gr/5 oz. Digestive Biscuits

110 gr/4 oz. Butter

Filling:

2 Eggs (separated)

110 gr/4 oz. Caster Sugar

Pinch of Salt

Juice of 1 small Lemon and grated rind of ½ Lemon

1 teaspoon Powdered Gelatine (soaked in 1 Tablespoon cold water)

Pinch of Cream of Tartar

90 ml/3 fl oz Double Cream

20 cm/8" Diameter flan ring or loose bottomed cake tin buttered.

Method:

Crumb the biscuits in a food processor or put into a plastic bag and crush with a rolling pin. Melt the butter in a small saucepan. Combine with the crumbs and mix well together. Press the mixture into the buttered tin. Chill.

Beat the egg yolks with half the sugar, salt, lemon juice and rind, pour all into a double saucepan (or a bowl over a saucepan of hot water). Cook and stir until thick. Remove the pan from the heat, add the soaked gelatine, stir in well and leave to cool.

Whisk the egg whites with the cream of tartar until foaming, then add the remaining sugar a dessertspoon at a time and continue whisking until stiff and glossy. Whisk the cream until thick.

A BLAST FROM THE PAST

Mid 1960s Evening Press

Deadly Nightshade

Among the exhibitors and the visitors last Saturday afternoon at the 20th Spring Show of the Howth, Sutton and Raheny Horticultural Society, in the Burrow National School, Sutton, Co. Dublin, I noticed Mrs. Matthew Gilroy, who was wearing navy, Mrs. Florence Campbell, in a grey tweed suit with a tangerine silk blouse, and the artist Muriel Brandt, in a light beige. Also there, was Mrs. Bayley Butler, Mrs. Liam McGonigle, Mrs. R. P. Kingston, Mrs. Maureen Keane, Mrs. R. Cox, secretary of the society, Mrs. Andrew Devane, Mr. Henry B. Fottrell, whom I find more often at dog shows, being president of the Irish Kennel Club, and Mrs. Desmond Bell.

Mrs. Bell very kindly presented me with an attractive primula, on behalf of the society, and one of the most unusual exhibits at the show seemed to be a group of vivid yellow wax-like flowers, with poker centres, called "Lisicheton," and I was told, it was the cultivated variety of the deadly nightshade. The flowers belonged to Mr. T. A. Carson of Baily, for whom they won a first prize.
